

Code of Conduct

PCMA is a listening organization focused on its participants. The Digital Event Strategist Certification Program is designed to increase interaction, engagement, collaboration, connectivity, and community, in a fun and safe learning environment.

We value the participation of each member of the community and endeavor to deliver an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Program participants are expected to conduct themselves with integrity, courtesy and respect for others and maintain the highest level of professionalism at all course programs, whether officially sponsored by PCMA or not. All participants, speakers, and staff for any PCMA program are required to observe the following Code of Conduct.

PCMA is dedicated to providing a harassment-free program experience for everyone, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race or religion. We do not tolerate harassment of course participants in any form. All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of diverse backgrounds and cultures. Sexual language and imagery are not appropriate for the program.

Be kind to others. Do not insult or defame participants. Harassment in any form, sexist, racist, or exclusionary jokes are not condoned at PCMA Programs.

Participants violating these rules may be asked to leave the DES program at the sole discretion of PCMA. Thank for helping to make this a welcoming program for all.
